SUBJECT: FOOD STAMP REAUTHORIZATION ACT OF 2002: MANDATORY
CHANGES EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2003

REFERENCE: PUBLIC LAW 107-171 OF MAY 13, 2002, United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Administrative Notice (AN) 03-04 dated October 21, 2002, AN 03-12 dated January 3, 2003, All-County Letter (ACL) 02-67 dated September 3, 2002, and ACL 03-08 dated February 11, 2003.

The purpose of this letter is to transmit implementing instructions and proposed State regulations to County Welfare Departments (CWD) regarding changes to the Food Stamp Program (FSP) resulting from the Food Stamp Reauthorization Act of 2002, which is part of the Farm Bill of 2002 (Public Law 107-171).

RESTORATION OF LEGAL NONCITIZENS, P.L. 107-171, SEC.4401.

Federal eligibility for food stamp benefits is being restored to three categories of legal noncitizens over a three-step phase-in process. Each phase of restoration has a 120-day quality control hold harmless period.

On October 1, 2002, federal eligibility was restored to legal noncitizens who are disabled, regardless of date of entry into the United States (reference ACL 02-67).

On April 1, 2003, federal eligibility was restored to legal noncitizens who have resided in the United States for five years, regardless of date of entry into the United States (reference ACL 03-08).

The attached proposed regulations, which will become effective October 1, 2003, represent the third and final step in the restoration of federal benefits to legal noncitizens, and will apply to legal noncitizen children who are under 18 years of age, regardless of date of entry into the United States.

Additionally, these regulations eliminate the deeming requirements for noncitizen children that count the income and resources of the noncitizen's sponsor when determining food stamp eligibility and benefit amounts for the noncitizen child.

Because these federal restorations affect many noncitizens who are currently receiving benefits under the state-funded California Food Assistance Program, it is imperative that counties accurately and immediately reflect the transition to federally-funded food stamp assistance on the Food Stamp Program Participation and Coupon Issuance Report (DFA 256) effective upon the implementation date of the regulations.

If you have any questions regarding the above information, please contact Bill Mullinax of the Food Stamp Policy Development Unit at (916) 657-3418.
